The Seniorogue

Nineteen Hundred and Seventy

Foreword

We the Seniors of Nineteen-Hundred and Seventy present to you, our yearbook, the SENIOROGUE. Tears may come but they are forgotten. Smiles come and are never forgotten. With happiness we look back over the year that has brought us to the brim of a new horizon, our future. All of our past years in school hold memories which are dear to us, but as Seniors we look upon this year as a special one because it is our last. We hope people will remember us by our moments of laughter. Our time is growing short, so in this presentation of the SENIOROGUE we have tried to recapture these lasting memories of laughter.

Dedication

The 1970 SENIOROGUE is dedicated to a woman who has led us through the years from awkward Freshmen to sophisticated Seniors. The world is changing fast and to keep in step we must be willing to change. The Senior Class knows this need to move fast and be alive and Mrs. Lucille Cannady symbolizes this moving and changing pace in our school. If one ever has a question she will do her best to explain.

Her moments of laughter are most often found when she is working with a student who is trying his best to do his work correctly. Her cloudy moments are most likely to come when a person doesn't do as well as he has the ability to do. She reserves her deepest friendship for the ones who wholeheartedly put their all into their work. So it is with deep appreciation that we dedicate this annual to her as a remembrance of our class through our moments of laughter.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1970, being a class of laughter, do seriously realize that we are to become graduates of Broadway High. We declare this to be our Last Will and Testament on this the sixteenth day of February in the year of our graduation.

ARTICLE I

Section 1 To the Senior sponsor, Mrs. Penelope Worthington, we leave our moments of laughter.
Section 2 To our alma mater, we leave our dearest memories.
Section 3 To the principal, we leave our sincere appreciation.
Section 4 To the faculty, we leave our deepest gratitude for helping us realize what life is really all about.
Section 5 To the Junior Class, we leave our unforgettable memories of the greatest year of our lives as Seniors.
Section 6 To the Sophomores, we leave a warning: Watch out, your years are running short.
Section 7 To the Freshmen, we leave assurance that some day you too will know the inevitable feeling of satisfaction all Seniors, and only Seniors, have.
Section 8 To the elementary students, we leave our elusive memories of all our years in school.

ARTICLE II

Section 1 I, Gail Bell, hereby leave my seat behind the cheerleaders at all the games to Debbie Nordan if she can stand the noise.
Section 2 I, Danny Ray Berryman, hereby leave my shirt tail to Mrs. Cannady.
Section 3 I, Becky Bowden, hereby leave my ability to make the most out of any situation I come across, no matter what it is, and come out laughing to anyone.
Section 4 I, Sammy Burns, hereby leave my ability to drive on dirt roads to Richard Gillis.
Section 5 I, Thesley Byrd, hereby leave Miss McCullen all of my bookkeeping "ability."
Section 6 I, James Collins, hereby leave the activity bus, my scorebook, and my driving ability to Jimmy Angell. He needs them all.
Section 7 I, Norman Coore, hereby leave my quiet ways to William Jones.
Section 8 I, Charlie Cotten, hereby leave my ability to stay out of trouble to anyone who needs it.
Section 9 I, Linda Cox, hereby leave my love for basketball and fun I have had playing to Marilyn Boggs.
Section 10 I, Sandy Cox, hereby leave my tardy slips to Mr. Williams.
Section 11 I, Gail Dickens, hereby leave my basketball suit to Sheila and my love for English to anyone who will have it.
Section 12 I, Billy Ray Faircloth, hereby leave, just leave.
Section 13 I, Lee Ray Gray, hereby leave my sideburns to Mrs. Peggy Thomas.
Section 14 I, Merrill Hunter, hereby leave my "Blue Goose" and my blue toboggan to Gene McNeill.
Section 15 I, Debby Johnson, hereby leave all the fun I've had at basketball games to anyone who can take it.
Section 16 I, Jane Jones, hereby leave my ability to be late for school to anyone who lives as far away as I do.
Section 17 I, Kathy Kelly, hereby leave my bookkeeping, typing and shorthand books to Miss McCullen.
Section 18 I, Phyllis Kelly, hereby leave Terry Lynn Thomas my knowledge of general science.
Section 19 I, Joseph Lawson, hereby leave my walking permit to anyone who is stupid enough to lose their driving license.
Section 20 I, Sam Mabe, hereby leave my reading ability to any one who wants to be a bookworm.
Section 21 I, Cathy Mansfield, hereby leave my assistance in the office to anyone who can cope with it so early in the morning.
Section 22 I, Annie McLean, hereby leave all my funny ways to anyone who can take them and still get by. Good Luck.
Section 23 I, Sue McNeill, hereby leave my great ability to sit on the BENCH at a ballgame to anyone who likes hard chairs.
Section 24 I, Margaret Murchison, hereby leave my love to all the "Soul Brothers" who are able to handle it with care.
Section 25 I, Jerry Lynn Parson, hereby leave my sneaky ways to Donald Thomas.
Section 26 I, Gloria Smith, hereby leave my happy laughs to Mr. Williams because he needs them.
Section 27 I, Gracie Smith, hereby leave my basketball ability that I didn't have to anyone who can find it.
Section 28 I, Sammy Stone, hereby leave nothing because I need everything I've got.
Section 29 I, Valerie Stone, hereby leave my love of coming to school to "Wax."
Section 30 I, Donna Sykes, hereby leave the job of editor of the annual and gladly, my nerves can't take any more.
Section 31 I, Eugene Taylor, hereby leave my Dodge fever to any man that can handle it.
Section 32 I, Gary Hazel Thomas, hereby leave my Ford truck to the Ford racing fans of Broadway High School.
Section 33 I, Gary L. Thomas, hereby leave my ticket to anyone else who would like a ride.
Section 34 I, Dianne Tuck, hereby leave to the Varsity boys my ability to get along with my teammates and work together.
Section 35 I, Debbye Wood, hereby leave the concession stand to Terry Thomas if he can take it another year.

Class Propheries

As we look into the future it is now 1980 and it has been ten years since the Seniors of '70 left their alma mater. Broadway has grown into a big blooming city and things are really swinging. We start at the south end of town with ole Broadway High.

As we enter the office we are greeted by Cathy Mansfield who has taken Mrs. Peggy Thomas' place as secretary. Merrill Hunter, our new math teacher, is signing his resignation papers as the principal, Donna Sykes, lays down the law about his sex education classes. As we move around to the library we find that Jane Jones has taken Miss Berry's job as librarian of the newly extended library. Debbye Wood now owns her own concession stand for the Broadway Pros.

In the sports scene we find that Gracie Smith is now head referee of the Sandhills Conference. Sandy Cox is now retiring after ten years of pro basketball. Charlie Cotten is the P. E. teacher at the local YMCA.

Gail Bell is now the proud owner of Drag Strip Hollow where Danny Ray Berryman has been named the best driver in drag racing since Ronnie Sox. Chrysler Corporation has put Eugene Taylor in charge of all Dodge racers, especially the Darts. It has just been announced that Thesley Byrd just made his tenth win at the Indiannapolis 500 in his 1957 Ford and Sammy Burns won the Firecracker 400 at Daytona in his Chevy. Ford has named Gary H. Thomas the best high speed driver since Lee Roy Yarborough and Sammy Stone has a chain of speed shops all over the South.

Moving on down the line we stop in at Mabel's Beauty Shop where Sue McNeill has taken Sally's place and is also head hair stylist. Next on the list we find Becky Bowden is the owner of a new Family Dollar Store. Jerry Lynn Parson is the manager of the new Mann's Drug Store where we learn all the latest news: Gail Dickens is the new Peggy Mann on channel 5 every weekday. Dianne Tuck and Harry Chubbs are the new owners of Kentucky Fried Chicken and Valerie Stone has moved up to head cashier at Duke's Drive-In. Gloria Smith is the new member of the Mod Squad and Margaret Murchison is now competing for the title of Miss Go-Go Girl of 1980. Joseph Lawson has bought the Yamaha Motorcycle Company and Linda Cox has taken Mrs. Clark's place at the Motor Vehicle Department. James Collins is now dean of Campbell College while Billy Ray Faircloth is running Whitfield's Gulf. Kathy Kelly is secretary to the Supreme Court judge in Washington and Lee Ray Gray is in Hollywood as Steve McQueen's stuntman. Norman Coore is running a huge chicken farm while Sam Mabe has taken over Archie Cameron's. Phyllis Kelly has finally saved up for a new car - 1950 model. Gary L. Thomas is now operating a trucking company from coast to coast. Annie McLean has just had her first date and Debby Johnson is still looking.

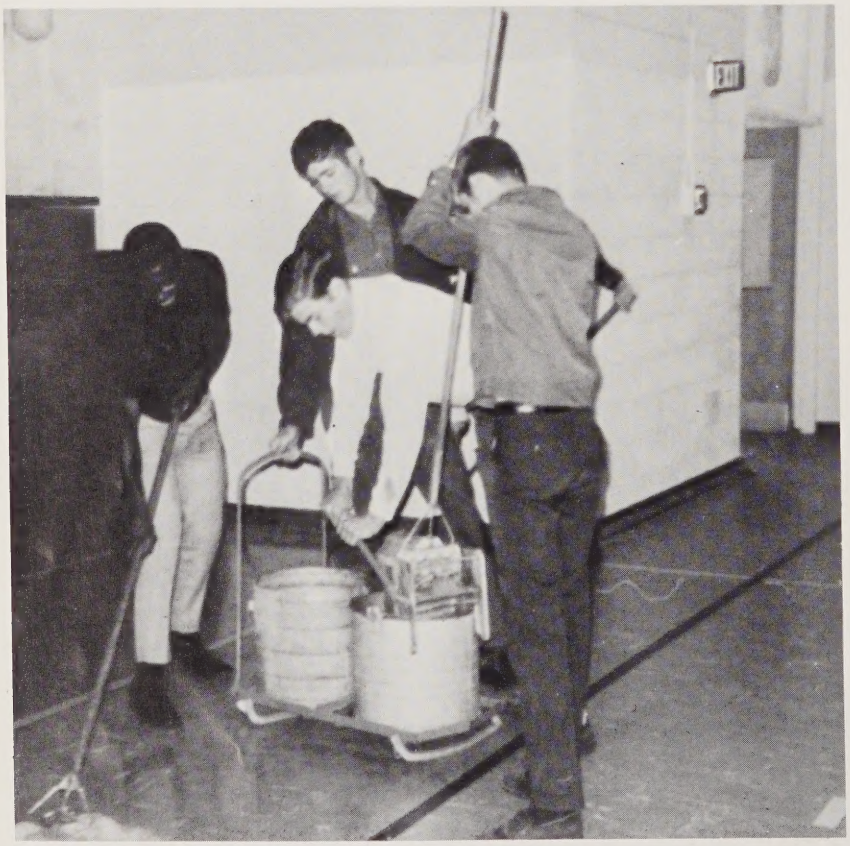
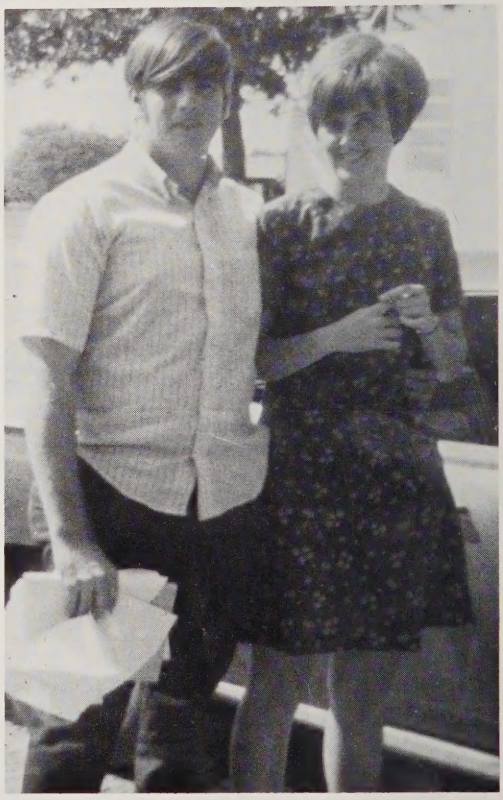
Bob Warren, our yearbook representative, explains to the annual staff that their yearbook would look a little funny if it was red with white polka dots.



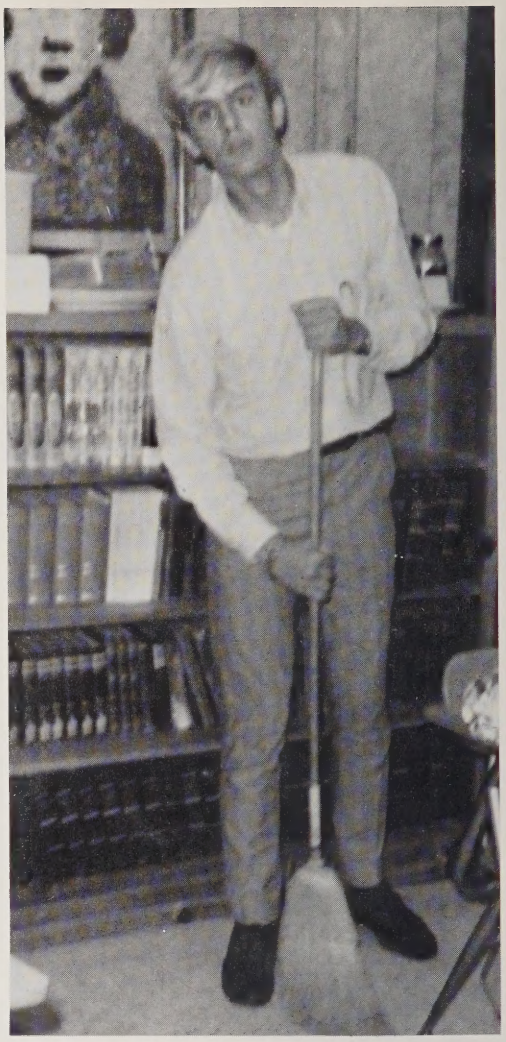
Sandy Ray, Eugene, Bill Ray and Sammy are known in the Senior Class as the "Mop Squad."



Linda, why are you smiling?

Miss Yuletide
'69-'70
Gail Dickens

Debby and Gail are not worried about any competition from Macbeth.



Joseph is thinking about joining the Future Homemakers of America.

Sheila and David, two representatives of the Freshman Class seem to be a little bashful.

"Give me one reason why not." What was it Merrill really asked Kathy?

Gracie, Dianne, Gloria, and Margaret are proud of their A's.

Joe Kelly captures the heart of every senior.

Billy Ray is not that strong - Valerie is that small.

THE ROMPER ROOM! The seniors are cutting expenses by making decorations for their dance.

All we need now is Dick Clark.

All I need now is her parents' permission.

Desertion at 3:10 bell!

Present and future Seniorogue staff members get down to business.

"Out, damned spot, out I say!"

A silly milli-meter longer!

Our editor and business manager do their thing!

Mary Belle takes pointers.

"Take me - I'm yours!"

Now Debby, sure we're good friends, but isn't this carrying it a little too far?

When it comes to exams Linda is all EARS.

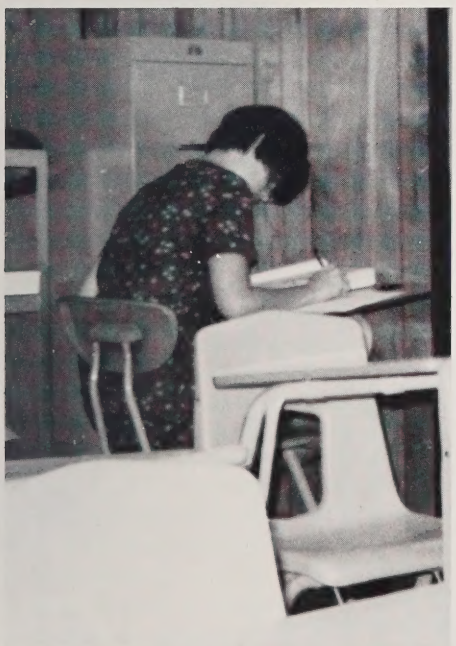
Bread and water again!



See Mrs. Worthington, Linda does study English!

Charlie checks the ice cream supply.

Gail Dickens "Miss Yuletide."

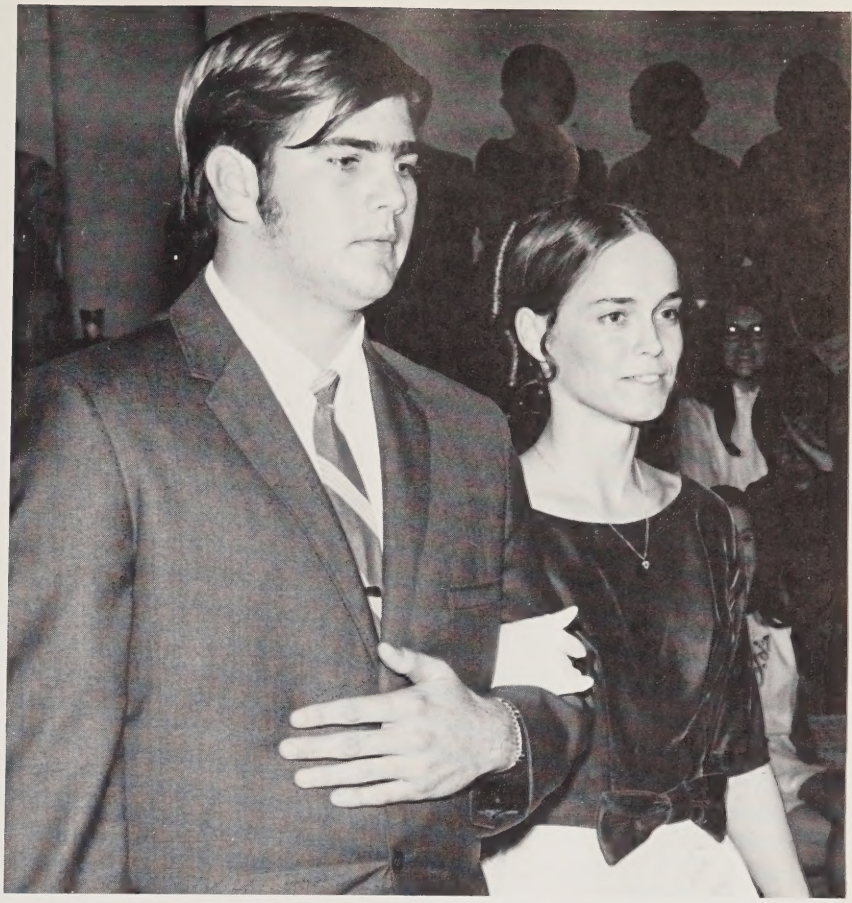
Donna says, "Do you use New Dry Ban, Cathy?"

"Sleeping Beauties"

Does this look like the Senior-ogue editor Donna Sykes?

Donna rules!

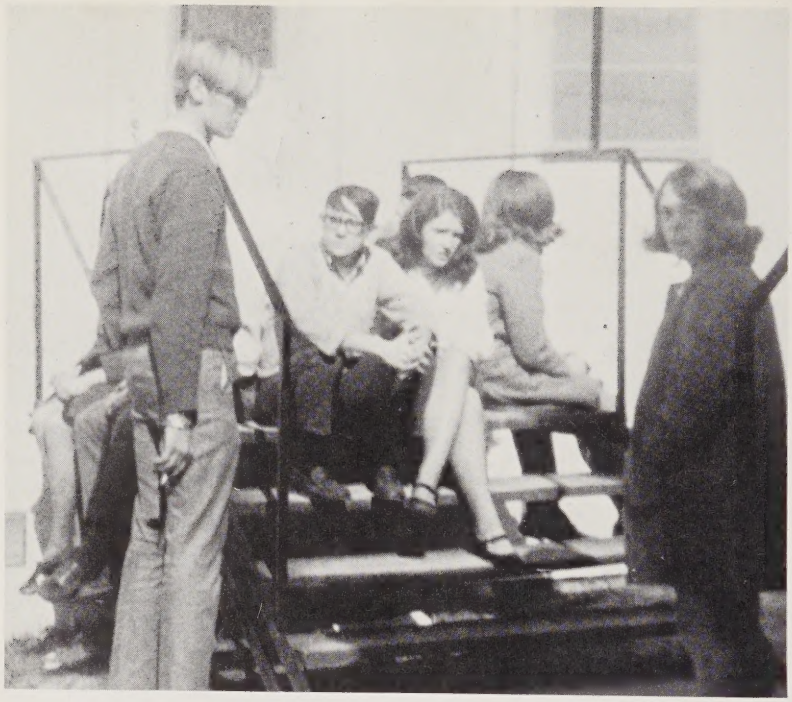
Kathy Kelly is proud to receive the title of "Miss Homecoming Queen of 1970" from Teresa Thomas the 1969 queen.



Danny Ray Berryman was the new Queen's escort.

HOMECOMING COURT 1969-1970

Sheila Dickens, Kathy Kelly (Queen '69-'70), Gracie Smith - 1st runner up, Effie Blue, Gloria Smith, Linda Cox - 2nd runner up, Marilyn Boggs, Robbie Dalrymple, Lois Douglas, Sheila Patterson, and Teresa Rosser.



Gail Bell is clinging to Lee in fear of Joseph.

Gracie, the lunch period isn't THAT short! You don't have to inhale your food!

Phyllis Kelly is in it up to her elbows!

Class of '70 never learned their "A, B, C's."

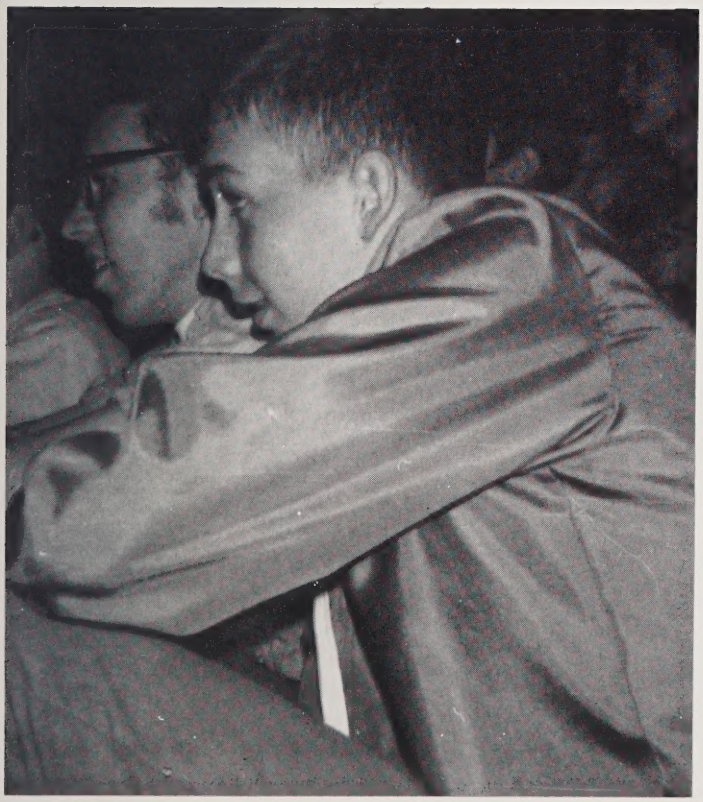
Debbie, it is not raining outside!

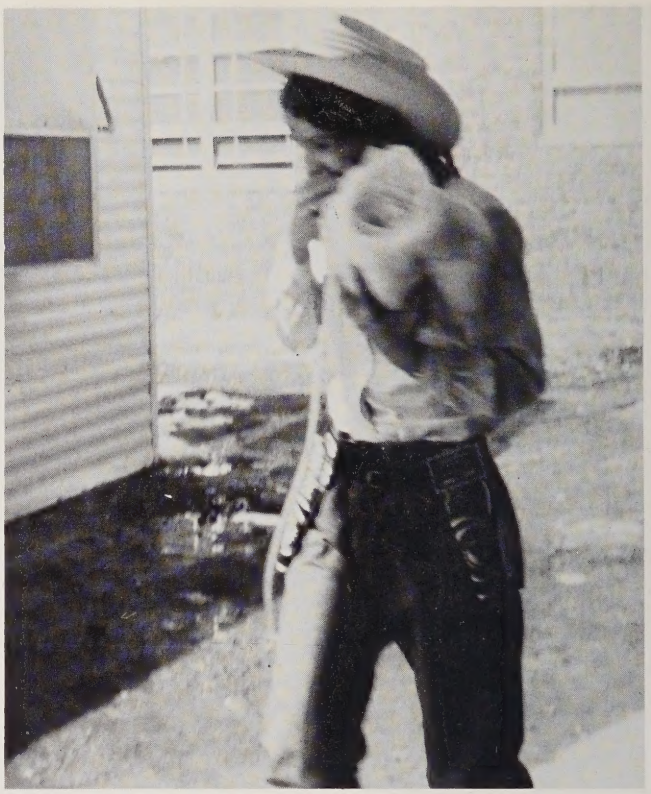
Marilyn Boggs, the Beta Club president, tells her fellow students that it is impolite to stare.



Are the boys interested in the cheers or CHEERLEADERS?

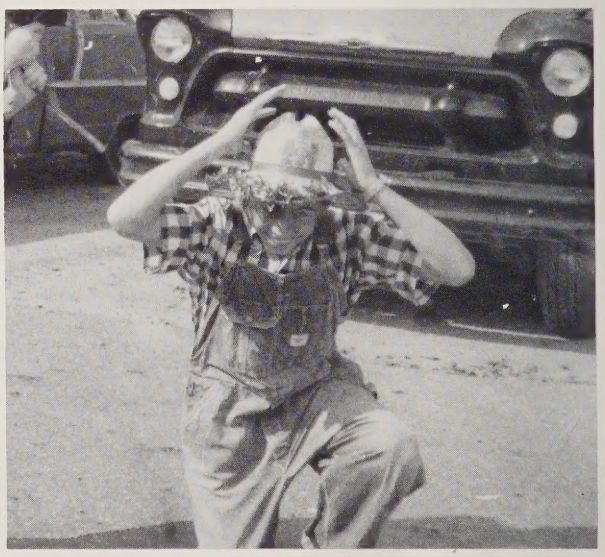
The Annual Staff is getting the underclassmen ready for picture taking.

Monogram Club members, Kathy, Sue and Cathy, are so enthused about the stationery sale that they try to sell boxes to each other.



During Beta initiation, Robbie Dalrymple hides behind her toilet tissue!

Michael McIver poses in his Beta initiation rig.



"You can take Merrill out of the country but - you can't take the country out of Merrill."

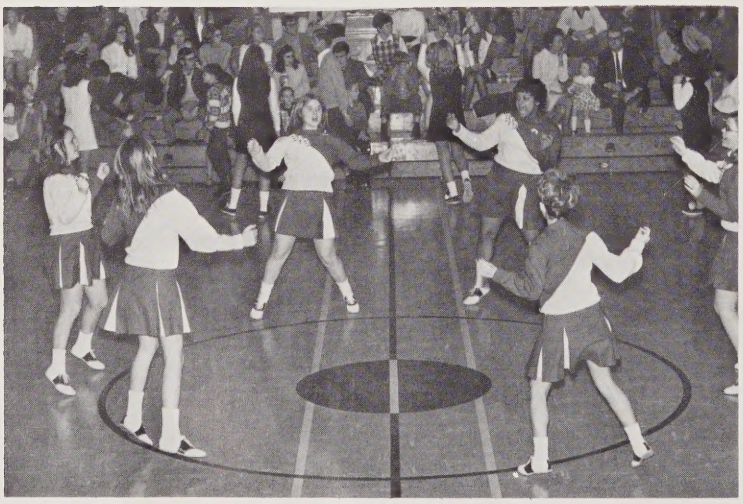
Donald pops in two more points to add to Broadway's deficit score!

A big strategy planning session precedes a win over Boone Trail.

Mr. Wall tells like it is.

Merrill Hunter wonders "When is the ball coming down?"



The cheerleaders do their "thing."

Broadway takes two

Broadway swept a pair from Gray's Creek last night, as both the boys and the girls took easy victories.

In the girls game, Broadway took an 11-5 lead at the end of the first quarter, and they were never headed after that. They led 33-18 at the end of the third quarter.

Gracie Smith was the leading scorer for Broadway with 15 points, and Marilyn Boggs added 11. Rhonda Buchanan got 8, Kathy Mansfield had 4, and Sue McNeil added one to round out the Wildcat scoring.

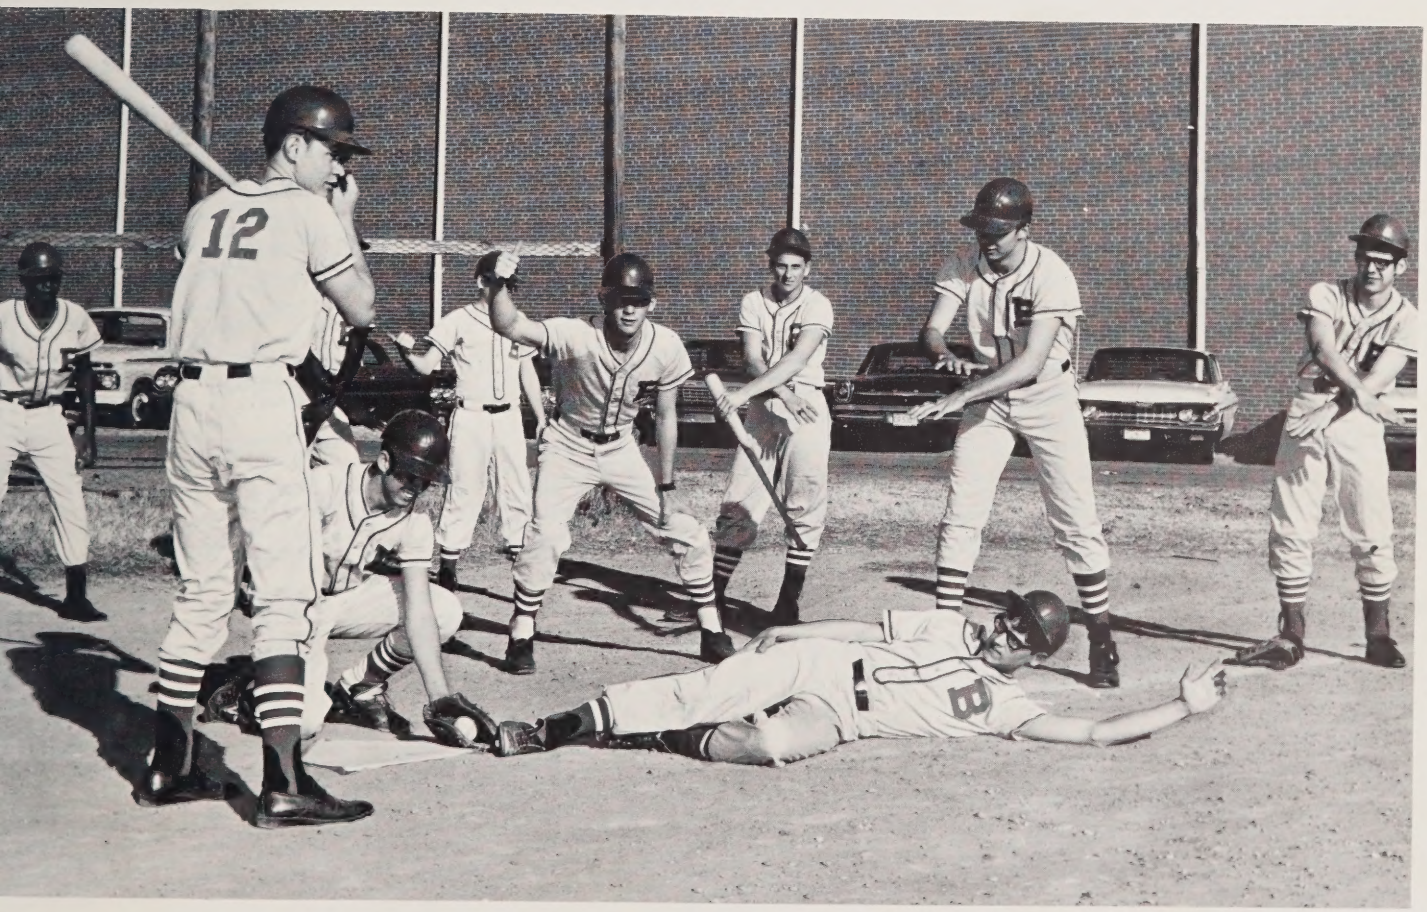
Kathy Devoe took scoring honors for the game with 16 points. Glenda Tobar had 5, Janice Moore got 4, and Glenda Marsh and Marlene Johnson each had two to round out the scoring for Gray's Creek.

In the boys game, Broadway jumped off to a 29-15 lead at the half, and held on to take a 55-38 victory. The Wildcats jumped off to a 17-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

As usual, John Chalmers and Steve Donaldson paced the Wildcat scoring. Chalmers tossed in 23 and Donaldson got 20. Donald Murchison got 7, Randy Thomas had 3, and Charlie Cotton added 2 for the Wildcats.

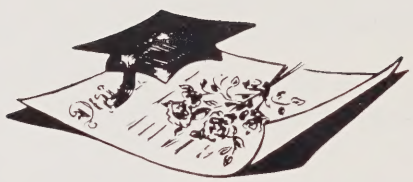
Gray's Creek only had one man in double figures, and that was Terry Jackson with 14 points. Larry Wilson got 6, Carl McLocklin had 5, Glenn Elliott and Withian Council each got 4, Tommy Melvin got 3, and Venzie Martin and Ralph Smedley each got one to round out the scoring for the losers.

KNEELING, left to right: Gene McNeill, Lee Smith, Merrill Hunter, Charlie Cotten, Thesley Byrd. STANDING: Johnny Faircloth, Ross Holt, Harold Murphy, Jimmy Angell, Donald Thomas, and Coach Larry Wall.



The catcher, Merrill Hunter, smiles as the Umpire, Johnny Faircloth, yells, "OUT!!"

The Class of 1970



Wishes to extend its sincere appreciation to you who advertised in our yearbook. Your gracious response to our appeals helped us make this book possible. Again, thank you.

Merrill Hunter, The SENIOROGUE Business Manager, has been working too hard trying to make the books balance - or he has been doing a little nipping.

Our Senior Class President, Cathy Mansfield, says a silent prayer before opening a class meeting.

"Help!" Becky Bowden displays the enthusiasm of the class in all the senior activities. Getting enough food together to feed the Lions, convincing businessmen that they need an ad, and paying for graduation are hard jobs, but we made it!

We can really laugh now. Debbye Mary Poppins Wood, Merrill Huck Finn Hunter, and Donna Pocahontas Sykes had a grand time playing the role during the Literary Club initiation.
